MONDAY 10TH DECEMBER 2018: EDITION 15

SCHOOL NEWS

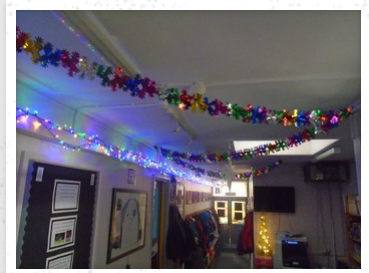

There has been so much happening in the past week. Below is a small taster of the exciting things that have been going down at Saxton CE Primary School.

ANCIENT GREEK DAY

CHRISTMAS FAYRE

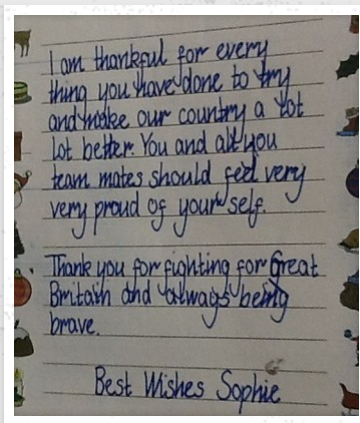

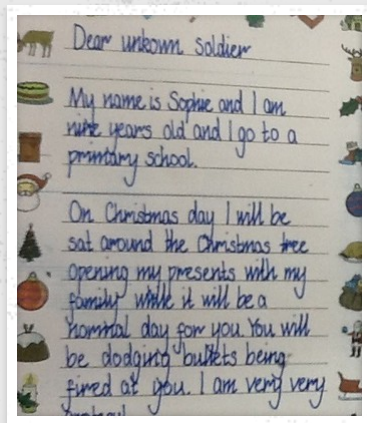

A HUGE thank you to FOSS for working so hard to organise a wonderful Christmas Fayre. Also the children love the new decorations that FOSS have purchased for school.

LETTERS TO AN UNKNOWN SOLDIER

Captain Simon Gibney from the Signal regiment based in York came to collect letters and cards that every child had written to soldiers stationed around the world. These soldiers are away over the festive period protecting our country and we are hoping to give them a little Christmas cheer and show our appreciation and support. They will all be delivered in time for Christmas day!

TWITTER

Our Twitter account is now officially up and running!! There will be pictures and updates about events happening in school so you don't miss out on anything exciting.

Please follow us @SaxtonCE so you don't miss out on anything happening in school.

The link to our Twitter feed is also now on our website so if you are not yet into Tweeting you can still be kept up to date with the exciting things going on throughout school.
